From the Pastor's Laptop

I was an English Major in College, and so the misuse of words is particularly irritating. Take, for example, the overuse of the word "awesome." Thanks be to God this word is fading from popular usage, but five years ago absolutely everything was described as "awesome." But of course only One is Awesome — only God and the things of God inspire "awe." To describe her new shoes or the way he washed the dishes as "awesome" reduces the sense of authentic awe, and Him who inspires true awe.

As I say, the misuse of "awesome" is fading, but the misuse of another word is on the ascendant. That word is "incredible." This adjective is used to describe anything that impresses the speaker. For example, "the performance last night was incredible," or "she has assembled this incredible staff." The 2004 animated movie about superheroes with attitude (The Incredibles) didn't help matters. But what does "incredible" actually mean? It means non-credible — unbelievable. If someone says that my homily was "incredible," they are saying that it is not believable — they don't buy a word of it — hardly a compliment!

I think the overuse of the word "incredible" tells us something. It tells us that "credibility," belief, is on the wane. People are saying that just about everything is "incredible," and not by accident. People find many more things "non-credible" today than they did 40 years ago. We don't believe in our members of Congress, our President, our heads of respected corporations, even our priests and bishops.

To all this "unbelief," we Catholics say, Credo. "I believe." Our faith is not in man or things human, but in God. This Wednesday is Ash Wednesday. I believe in the Passion, Death, and the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. I believe that God lives, and lives in each of us. Let's keep a good Lent, insisting that there is still room for belief in the world.

These birds on our bell tower believe!

Fr. Joseph

Religious Education

On Our Way to Heaven (part 2)

Last week, the first three of Fr. McCloskey's Seven Daily Habits for Faithful Catholics, were covered. Here are the next four:

4. Fifteen Minutes of Spiritual Reading — It is important to make sure we read and meditate upon Sacred Scripture every day. Also, reading the lives and writings of the saints is essential because they can inspire us to live out our faith by their example of living their faith. Check out Fr. McCloskey's list of books he recommends to read at: www.CatholiCity.com.

5. Pray the Angelus — Traditionally the Angelus prayer is prayed at 6am, noon, and 6pm, in order to sanctify the whole day. Although those are the traditional times, you can incorporate the Angelus with saying grace before you eat, so in the morning before you eat breakfast, around noon before you eat lunch, and in the evening before you eat dinner.

6. Pray the Holy Rosary — Praying the rosary every day is a habit that can be life-changing and can benefit our spiritual life greatly. The rosary helps us to meditate upon the life and mystery of Christ through the eyes of Mary, His and Our Mother. What a beautiful perspective Mary must have on the life of her Son. If you find it difficult to get into the habit right away of praying the whole rosary every day start by simply doing a decade. You also can get the rosary on CD or download it on your mp3 player to listen and meditate on in your car while you drive to work.

7. Examine Your Conscience — This habit involves finding a quiet place before bedtime every night and going through the day of how we lived virtuously and how we failed to love God. This is beneficial to grow in sanctity but also helps us to truly rest in God's mercy.

These seven habits might seem like a lot to take on. If we honestly look at our day, we will see no matter how busy we are, the time is there! It might mean sacrificing getting your cup of coffee in the morning, spending less time watching TV or playing video games. If loving God is a greater priority in our lives, we will be blessed abundantly. Jesus said: I have come that you might have life and have it abundantly (John 10:10).

Steps up Mt. Carmel

The Angelus

The Angel of the Lord declared to Mary: And she conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Behold the handmaid of the Lord: Be it done unto me according to Thy word.

Hail Mary...

And the Word was made Flesh: (Bow reverently for the great act of love - the Incarnation) And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary...

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray: Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Profiles in Stewardship

by Tammy Menezes

Last week many of St. Joseph's staff were able to "retreat" away from their parish jobs for the Annual Staff Spiritual Retreat. We enjoyed several days of fresh air, fresh prayer and time to reflect upon our faith life. Our retreat master was Fr. Pasqual, who worked for several decades with Blessed Teresa of Calcutta and was able to share many stories about her work, life and the Missionaries of Charity. He shared that the three tenets of the MC's are Loving Trust, Total Surrender and Cheerfulness. I immediately thought of Bea Nolte when he provided examples of each area. Bea has volunteered for many years in our Religious Education Department, attends daily Mass, volunteers in the Center for Lay Apostolates and has even taken over my Adoration Chapel hour when I have been on vacation. Bea brings a lively cheerfulness to everything she is involved with. She totally surrenders to God's will by taking whatever He gives and giving whatever He asks. Bea has a loving trust in Divine Providence, believing that God will provide. Sometimes life seems too busy and we are frustrated with our inability to control it. I thank this wonderful steward of our faith for her perfect example of trust, surrender and cheerfulness.

From our Holy Father in Rome

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS FOR THE CELEBRATION
OF THE WORLD DAY OF PEACE

1 JANUARY 2012

EDUCATING YOUNG PEOPLE IN JUSTICE AND PEACE (PART IV)

Educating in Justice

In this world of ours, in which, despite the profession of good intentions, the value of the person, of human dignity and human rights is seriously threatened by the widespread tendency to have recourse exclusively to the criteria of utility, profit and material possessions, it is important not to detach the concept of justice from its transcendent roots. Justice, indeed, is not simply a human convention, since what is just is ultimately determined not by positive law, but by the profound identity of the human being. It is the integral vision of man that saves us from falling into a contractual conception of justice and enables us to locate justice within the horizon of solidarity and love.

We cannot ignore the fact that some currents of modern culture, built upon rationalist and individualist economic principles, have cut off the concept of justice from its transcendent roots, detaching it from charity and solidarity: “The ‘earthly city’ is promoted not merely by relationships of rights and duties, but to an even greater and more fundamental extent by relationships of gratuitousness, mercy and communion. Charity always manifests God’s love in human relationships as well, it gives theological and salvific value to all commitment for justice in the world.”

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied” (Mt 5:6). They shall be satisfied because they hunger and thirst for right relations with God, with themselves, with their brothers and sisters, and with the whole of creation.

Educating in peace

“Peace is not merely the absence of war, and it is not limited to maintaining a balance of power between adversaries. Peace cannot be attained on earth without safeguarding the goods of persons, free communication among men, respect for the dignity of persons and peoples, and the assiduous practice of fraternity.” We Christians believe that Christ is our true peace: in him, by his Cross, God has reconciled the world to himself and has broken down the walls of division that separated us from one another (cf. Eph 2:14-18); in him, there is but one family, reconciled in love.

Peace, however, is not merely a gift to be received: it is also a task to be undertaken. In order to be true peacemakers, we must educate ourselves in compassion, solidarity, working together, fraternity, in being active within the community and concerned to raise awareness about national and international issues and the importance of seeking adequate mechanisms for the redistribution of wealth, the promotion of growth, cooperation for development and conflict resolution. “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God,” as Jesus says in the Sermon on the Mount (Mt. 5:9). Peace for all is the fruit of justice for all, and no one can shirk this essential task of promoting justice, according to one’s particular areas of competence and responsibility. To the young, who have such a strong attachment to ideals, I extend a particular invitation to be patient and persevering in seeking justice and peace, in cultivating the taste for what is just and true, even when it involves sacrifice and swimming against the tide.

Bea Nolte

La semana pasada varios del personal de St. Joseph's pudieron "retirarse" de sus trabajos para asistir al retiro espiritual anual. Disfrutamos de unos días de aire fresco, oración y tiempo para reflexionar sobre nuestra vida de fe. Dirigió nuestro retiro el padre Pascual, quien trabajó por varias décadas con la Beata Teresa de Calcuta y pudo compartir muchas historias sobre el trabajo, vida y las Misioneras de la Caridad de la Madre Teresa. Nos dijo que las tres declaraciones de las Misioneras son Confianza Amorosa, Entrega Total y Alegría. Cuando nos dio ejemplos de cada una, yo inmediatamente pensé en Bea Nolte. Bea nos ha ayudado por muchos años en el departamento de educación religiosa, en el centro del apostolado laico, asiste a misa diariamente, y hasta ha tomado mi hora de adoración al Santísimo cuando estoy en vacaciones. Ella se entrega totalmente a la voluntad de Dios tomando lo que él le da y entregando lo que él le pide. Bea tiene una amorosa confianza en la Divina Providencia, ella sabe que Dios proveerá. Algunas veces la vida nos parece muy de prisa y nos frustramos con nuestra inhabilidad de poder controlarla. Le doy gracias a esta maravillosa corresponsal de nuestra fe por su gran ejemplo de confianza, entrega y alegría.

¡Boletín Parroquial en Español! DEL LAPTOP DEL PÁRROCO, Padre Joseph Illo

Mi Grado Universitario fue en Inglés, por esto es que me irrita el mal uso de las palabras. Por ejemplo, la palabra “awesome” la cual es usada frecuentemente. Gracias a Dios que esta palabra está desapareciendo del uso popular, pero hace cinco años, casi todo fue descrito con “awesome.” Por supuesto, que solo Uno es Asombroso (awesome)—solo Dios y las cosas de Dios inspiran asombro. El describir los nuevos zapatos de ella, o la manera en que él ha lavado los platos como algo asombroso, reduce el auténtico sentido de la palabra asombro y de Aquel que lo inspira.

Como dije, el mal uso de “awesome” ya está desapareciendo, pero el mal uso de otra palabra viene creciendo. La palabra es “increíble.” Este adjetivo se usa para describir cualquier cosa que impresiona al parlante. Por ejemplo, “la actuación anoche fue increíble,” o “ella tiene un personal increíble.” La película de animación del 2004 sobre los superhéroes con actitud (The Incredibles— Los Increíbles) no ayudó de ninguna manera. Pero ¿qué quiere decir en realidad la palabra “increíble”? Quiere decir algo que no se puede creer —increíble. Si alguien dice que mi homilía es algo “increíble,” quieren decir que es algo que no se puede creer—que no se tragan ni la primera palabra— ¡De verdad que esto no es un cumplido!

Yo creo que el sobre-uso de la palabra “increíble” nos dice algo. Nos dice que la “credibilidad”, que el creer está desapareciendo. La gente dice que casi todo es “increíble,” y no por accidente. La gente encuentra hoy muchas más cosas “que no se pueden creer” que hace cuarenta años. No creemos en los miembros de nuestro Congreso, nuestro Presidente, nuestros gerentes de corporaciones, y hasta nuestros sacerdotes y obispos.

A todo esta falta de “creer”, nosotros los Católicos respondemos con el Credo. “Yo creo.” Nuestra fe no se basa en un hombre o en cosas humanas, sino en Dios. Este miércoles es “Miércoles de Ceniza.” Yo creo en la Pasión, Muerte y la Resurrección de Jesucristo. Yo creo que Dios vive, y que vive en cada uno de nosotros. Hagamos de esta, una buena Cuaresma, insistiendo que todavía hay espacio en el mundo para la creer.

¡Estos pájaros en nuestra campana si Creen!

Nuestro Santo Padre en Roma

MENSAJE DE SU SANTIDAD PARA LA
CELEBRACIÓN DE LA JORNADA MUNDIAL DE LA PAZ
1 DE ENERO DE 2012
EDUCAR A LOS JÓVENES EN LA JUSTICIA Y LA PAZ (PARTE IV)

Educación en la justicia

4. En nuestro mundo, en el que el valor de la persona, de su dignidad y de sus derechos, más allá de las declaraciones de intenciones, está seriamente amenazado por la extendida tendencia a recurrir exclusivamente a los criterios de utilidad, del beneficio y del tener, es importante no separar el concepto de justicia de sus raíces trascendentes. La justicia, en efecto, no es una simple convención humana, ya que lo que es justo no está determinado originariamente por la ley positiva, sino por la identidad profunda del ser humano. La visión integral del hombre es lo que permite no caer en una concepción contractualista de la justicia y abrir también para ella el horizonte de la solidaridad y del amor[6].

No podemos ignorar que ciertas corrientes de la cultura moderna, sostenida por principios económicos racionalistas e individualistas, han sustraído al concepto de justicia sus raíces trascendentes, separándolo de la caridad y la solidaridad: «La “ciudad del hombre” no se promueve sólo con relaciones de derechos y deberes sino, antes y más aún, con relaciones de gratuidad, de misericordia y de comunión. La caridad manifiesta siempre el amor de Dios también en las relaciones humanas, otorgando valor teológico y salvífico a todo compromiso por la justicia en el mundo»[7].

«Bienaventurados los que tienen hambre y sed de la justicia, porque ellos quedarán saciados» (Mt 5,6). Serán saciados porque tienen hambre y sed de relaciones rectas con Dios, consigo mismos, con sus hermanos y hermanas, y con toda la creación.

Educación en la paz

5. «La paz no es sólo ausencia de guerra y no se limita a asegurar el equilibrio de fuerzas adversas. La paz no puede alcanzarse en la tierra sin la salvaguardia de los bienes de las personas, la libre comunicación entre los seres humanos, el respeto de la dignidad de las personas y de los pueblos, la práctica asidua de la fraternidad»[8]. La paz es fruto de la justicia y efecto de la caridad. Y es ante todo don de Dios. Los cristianos creemos que Cristo es nuestra verdadera paz: en Él, en su cruz, Dios ha reconciliado consigo al mundo y ha destruido las barreras que nos separaban a unos de otros (cf. Ef 2,14-18); en Él, hay una única familia reconciliada en el amor.

Pero la paz no es sólo un don que se recibe, sino también una obra que se ha de construir. Para ser verdaderamente constructores de la paz, debemos ser educados en la compasión, la solidaridad, la colaboración, la fraternidad; hemos de ser activos dentro de las comunidades y atentos a despertar las conciencias sobre las cuestiones nacionales e internacionales, así como sobre la importancia de buscar modos adecuados de redistribución de la riqueza, de promoción del crecimiento, de la cooperación al desarrollo y de la resolución de los conflictos. «Bienaventurados los que trabajan por la paz, porque ellos serán llamados hijos de Dios», dice Jesús en el Sermón de la Montaña (Mt 5,9). La paz para todos nace de la justicia de cada uno y ninguno puede eludir este compromiso esencial de promover la justicia, según las propias competencias y responsabilidades. Invito de modo particular a los jóvenes, que mantienen siempre viva la tensión hacia los ideales, a tener la paciencia y constancia de buscar la justicia y la paz, de cultivar el gusto por lo que es justo y verdadero, aun cuando esto pueda comportar sacrificio e ir contracorriente.

2012 Bishop's Ministry Appeal

St. Joseph's Goal is $193,031

Diocese Goal: $2,100,000

Fr. Sam West

Fr. Camilo Garcia, Fr. Larry Guerrero, Fr. Joseph Illo

Bishop Stephen Blaire
Dec. Ernest Ciccarelli

The annual appeal to help our Bishop with seminarian education.

Why is it important that we support the Diocese goal with our share? Bishop Blaire faces many of the same challenges we face in our own personal lives: growing expense, reduced income and .....increased need. Our church is growing. Our own St. Joseph's RCIA program is one of the largest in the Diocese. These new Catholics are eager to serve Our Lord. Our Bishop must provide for this ever-growing population by providing more priests and deacons. Let us help our Bishop continue to pay for our seminarians (we need more priests!), train new religious education teachers, and grow our Youth and Young Adult Ministries.

Please complete your BMA Pledge today, or bring to next weekend's Mass.

Thank you to our 2012 BMA St. Joseph's Co-Chairs:

Ron Cook,

Norma Rodriguez and John Gorman

They will speak at all Masses this weekend!
